

LEARN TO SPEAK BEFORE GROUPS LARGE AND SMALL...

naturally,
clearly,
& effectively!

Motivational Speaker Billy Riggs, MRE, MDiv, Certified Speaking Professional addresses 3500 people.

Don't waste your money on speaker coaches who will program you with robotic gestures to “enhance” a stilted message that sounds rehearsed. And don't waste your valuable time on new-age gobbledygook or embarrassing group exercises. Billy Riggs will help you become authentically you in such a way that your speech connects, resonates and persuades. When you address a group feeling comfortable in your own shoes, sharing your true passion you naturally become an effective communicator. All that is necessary is to chip away the self-consciousness, anxiety and awkward habits that create barriers between you and your audience.

PRIVATE COACHING

Executives wanting to become better communicators, learn to deliver external speeches, or just overcome fear of public speaking receive 1 on 1 training right in your office. Those outside the Austin, Texas area receive the same training via Skype.

INTERNAL SEMINARS

Billy will come to your office or event anywhere to meet with a group of executives or employees to train them to deliver excellent speeches or persuasive sales presentations. Depending on the number of attendees, sessions can range up to a full day to allow time for all to participate.

PUBLIC SEMINARS

From time to time Billy hosts open-to-the public half-day seminars to teach simple techniques that will improve public speaking skills and increase the effectiveness of sales presentations. Call 512-301-6905 for scheduled seminars.

Fantastic! Couldn't be better! I've trained thousands of speakers over the past 20 years and I can be very critical, but you are bar-none the best speaker I've ever heard! Terry Horton, Engineer and Consultant, Little Rock, Arkansas
